

CONSTITUTION for the
INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION of PICKLEBALL
(IFP)

Preamble

We, the members of the International Federation of Pickleball (IFP), pledge to perpetuate the growth and advancement of Pickleball throughout the world. Our goal is to introduce the sport to our global nations so that they may embrace Pickleball as one of their national sports.

We hereby establish a volunteer organization to promote international play and competition, maintain the global rules for Pickleball and provide a worldwide code of conduct for Pickleball athletes. We will focus resources on training and mentoring individuals everywhere to establish organizations that perpetuate the sport locally and support IFP recognition.

History

The Sport of Pickleball was invented in the summer of 1965 by Joel Pritchard and Bill Bell of Bainbridge Island, Washington USA. In 1984, the United States Pickleball Association (USAPA) “was organized to perpetuate the growth and advancement of Pickleball on a national level.” The first rulebook was published by the USAPA in March, 1984.

Since 1965, the sport has grown in popularity and organized competitions at the state and national level have emerged. Additionally, several countries around the world have started their own clubs and are engaged in building their national organizations. The first National Open Pickleball Competition was conducted at Surprise, Arizona in 2009. In early 2010, a committee was formed to advance the concept of an International Federation of Pickleball (IFP). The IFP is organized under this constitution to perpetuate the international growth and advancement of Pickleball.
